GREAT DECISIONS MADE FOR U. S. BY HUGHES, BRITAIN BY BALFOUR, JAPAN BY KATO

By A. L. BRADFORD,

WITHDRAW FROM CHINA
Washington, Dec. 3.—France and Great Britain today formally offered to withdraw from leased territories in China.

Japan, explaining her position in Manchuria, said she was willing to withdraw from Shantung, and would discuss withdrawal from Manchuria.

Washington, Dec. 3.—The Anglo-Japanese alliance is scrapped. The United States, Great Britain, Japan and France enter into an understanding to take the place of the alliance.

Japan, in view of the above considerations, accepts the "five-five-three" naval limitation plan of the United States.

These momentous steps in world affairs—the most important that have taken place in the peace conference on limitation of armament—have been virtually decided upon by Hughes for the United States, Balfour for Great Britain, and Kato for Japan, it was learned today on highest authority.

This is a virtual decision because these steps have been submitted to the home governments concerned by the delegates here, and only final word of approval from some of the governments is necessary before they are put into definite shape, promulgated to the world, and formally adopted.

These great decisions were reached informally in a two-hour conference last evening between the "Big Three" of the conference—Hughes of the United States, Balfour of Great Britain, and Kato of Japan.

Thus are to be solved the most important questions before the limitation of armament conference. These steps by the great world statesmen mean the menace of the Anglo-Japanese alliance to the United States is to be removed, that war between the United States and Japan is to be made impossible, and that the Hughes plan for limitation of naval armament is to be definitely accepted.

The "understanding" between the United States, Great Britain, Japan and France is to have two main parts, the United Press is informed, as follows:

1. That these great powers pledge themselves to observe and maintain to the best of their ability the peace of the Pacific and the far east.

2. To follow that end and to lessen the chances of conflict among themselves, these powers agree to the non-fortification of the Pacific isles.

Admiral Baron Kato, chief of the Japanese delegation last night immediately after the conference of the "big three" sent an urgent secret cable message to his government in Tokio asking authorization to accept the sixty per cent naval ratio for Japan on the above stated conditions.

"Conditional acceptance" was said to have been given by Kato in the conference of the "big three."

Kato is understood to have stressed to Hughes and Balfour the necessity of Japan having a seventy per cent naval ratio from the standpoint of naval security without some guarantees, such as non-fortification of the Pacific islands, and the new Pacific understanding.

The entire plan seems to be up to Tokio, and Japan is expected to accept. A reply will be a few days coming from Tokio.

The next plenary session of the conference will be a momentous one. It is then that Secretary Hughes is expected to announce as an accepted fact the understanding between the four great powers to take the place of the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

Shantung Question Settled by Mediation

Tokio, Dec. 3.—The Shantung question will probably be settled soon by an Anglo-American mediation board, according to seemingly reliable indications here.

It is reported that British and American ambassadors recently visited the Chinese foreign office, and proposed mediation of the Shantung question.

Briand Explains to Cabinet
Paris, Dec. 3.—Premier Briand explained the results so far obtained at the Washington Arms Conference to his cabinet here today.

Particular stress was placed on the reparation situation growing out of reports that England favors a German moratorium, which is opposed by France.

ARBUCKLE JURY FAILS TO AGREE AFTER 7 HOURS

COMEDIAN DISAPPOINTED AT NOT GETTING SPEEDY ACQUITTAL; JURY SAID TO BE 11 TO 1

By M. D. TRACY,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Hall of Justice, San Francisco, Dec. 3.—A disagreement of the jury loomed today as the seven men and five women holding in their hands the fate of Roscoe Arbuckle, resumed deliberations.

The famous movie comedian, haggard with the trial of waiting to hear whether he will be adjudged guilty of causing the death of beautiful Virginia Rappe, was badly disappointed because he had not attained a speedy acquittal.

Seven hours of deliberation, ending shortly after eleven last night, failed to bring an agreement on the verdict. It was reported there were 11 to 1 in favor of acquittal.

Out 19 Hours
San Francisco, Dec. 3.—Nineteen hours ending at noon today had failed to bring the jury any decision on the guilt or innocence of Roscoe Arbuckle, film comedian, who is on trial for manslaughter.

Arbuckle spent an anxious morning, talking to groups of friends, smoking cigarettes and walking the corridors with a big policeman. His wife, Minta Durfee remained quietly in the courtroom. The only flurry of the morning occurred at 11 a. m. when a bailiff suddenly called court to order and Judge Louderback stepped to the bench. But hopes which rose high were immediately dashed when the judge called a short calendar of record cases and adjourned court again.

It was understood the judge then left the hall of justice, pending call from the jury.

While Arbuckle paced the corridors, Bambina Maude Delmont, the "avenger," who swore to the complaint and sent him to trial, was in a cell on the floor above the courtroom, awaiting removal to Madera, California, for alleged bigamy. She had been in jail since yesterday, unable to raise bail. She is alleged to have married Casius Woods, without having been divorced.

Stephen Hopkins, the alternate juror, said he would have judged Arbuckle not guilty.

Followers of the case believed the evidence of E. O. Heinrichs, the finger print expert dealing with the finger prints of Miss Rappe, and it was alleged Arbuckle's prints were superimposed, was the point over which the jury was temporarily "hung."

It was understood the jury was 11 to 1 for acquittal. A woman was understood to be holding out for conviction.

The jury en route from the hotel to the hall of justice at 11 a. m., hesitated a moment on their way to the court room to catch a glimpse of Marshall Poch who had arrived in San Francisco, and headed a great parade on Market street. Spectators and the defendant, Arbuckle, did the same thing. Poch's car rolled down Market street and stood a minute unobscured, while the big comedian doffed his hat to the hero of the great war.

Locked In Vault
St. Paul, Dec. 3.—Four persons were locked in the big safety deposit vault of the Merchants National bank when the gate jammed, and they were kept inside for more than half an hour.

In the meantime, a number of persons on the outside were anxious to get in.

A lock smith solved the difficulty.

JUSTICE OF PEACE SHOOT BANDIT BANK ROBBER

(By United Press)

Robbinsdale, Minn., Dec. 3.—Menaced by a bandit's gun, Justice of the Peace V. D. Crandall shot him down on the street here late Friday, and recovered $1,500 in money the man had just taken from the Security State bank.

The man was identified as G. G. Farrell, of Minneapolis. With a mask over his eyes, the man entered the bank when Paul Ovrom, 24, and Miss Carrie McDougall were alone. He thrust the gun at Ovrom and demanded the money. When he turned his head, Miss McDougall stepped on the burglar alarm. The man fled.

A. B. Wallace, real estate dealer, borrowed a revolver. Justice of the Peace Crandall accompanied him. They called to the bandit to halt. He drew his gun. Crandall grabbed the gun from Wallace and fired. The bandit walked on a hundred feet and fell dead.

West Fargo Under Sheriff's Hammer
Fargo, Dec. 3.—Almost the entire village of West Fargo, with the exception of the packing plant, is under the sheriff's hammer at the Cass county court house today.

Twenty-four houses, built for employees of the packing company, a hotel and 82 acres of land are to be auctioned off. The sale is forced to satisfy judgment against the packing company by Louis Altenberg of Sabin, Clay county, Minn.

Mr. Altenberg loaned the company $50,000 in June 1920, heavily mortgaging his personal property to raise the amount. Mr. Altenberg who is a director in the company, thought the company to be firm financially at the time.

It is expected that the company will redeem the property before the year of grace has expired. The plant is not operating at present.

MINNEAPOLIS POLICE FIND 20 CARS STOLEN BY IOWA THIEF CLIQUE

Minneapolis, Dec. 3.—More than a score of automobiles, stolen by the Dubuque, Iowa, gang of automobile thieves, whose ringleader is now in custody there, have been traced to Minneapolis, according to telegraphic advices to the police department here.

Detective Frank Colwell, head of the automobile detection squad, declared today he had located 20 of these "Iowa cars" as a result of information furnished this department by the Dubuque authorities. None of these machines have been confiscated by the police here and no arrests have been made, it was learned.

The Iowa authorities are said to have ascertained that the auto gang now being broken up was responsible for the theft of more than 800 automobiles, more than 300 of which already have been located.

INVESTIGATE PARTY OF EXCLUSIVE CLUB

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Official investigation of the "Hares Party" held in the Casino club, Chicago's most exclusive social organization, was under way today under the direction of State's Attorney R. Crowe. Edward Vallen-tien Steward was quizzed regarding serving large quantities of strong liquor at the party. Two of the younger members were expelled for infringing on some rule during the "party."

BANDITS RAID MINE; GET $60,000 IN GOLD

Jackson, Cal., Dec. 3.—A month's cleanup of gold amalgam, valued at between $60,000 and $70,000, was taken from the Argonaut mine here today by a gang of eight men who bound the two mill men on duty, blew open the safe and escaped in automobiles.

Advocate Bankruptcy as Means of Deflating Fictitious R. R. Capital

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 3.—Bankruptcy as a means of deflating fictitious railroad capitalism was the sensational suggestion made today by Frank J. Warne, railroad statistician, before the senate interstate commerce committee today.

"The suggestion would not be so terrifying as the railroad representatives would have the public believe," declared Warne in comment on the recommendation of bankruptcy proceedings urged by an attorney for ship- pers, in the case of the New Haven system.

U. S. A REVELATION TO ARMS DELEGATES SEE NO MILITARISM

BUT SEE A NATION BELIEVING UNIVERSAL PEACE POSSIBLE SAYS BRYAN

AMERICANS FIND CAUSE OF WAR IN EUROPE ONLY RESULT FROM IMPERIALISM

By WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN
(Copyright, 1921, United Press.)

The Arms Conference has given the delegates and foreign men a chance to become acquainted with the American attitude on international questions. Our visitors see a nation that believes world peace was not only possible, but very desirable. They observed no evidence of armed force. While they will see men in uniforms, more in Washington than anywhere else, they do not impress the observer that they play a prominent part in the nation. Outside of Washington, the visitor scarcely sees a soldier, and he will see very little of the things that pertain to war. They are returning home with a vision of what is possible when the government is in the hands of the masses, and receive its inspiration from those who produce the wealth of the richest nation in the world.

The people of the United States are also learning something, and what they learn will tend to increase their devotion to peace, and their opposition to anything imperialistic. They see that all the questions that give any trouble at the conference grow out of imperialism. It is only where the doctrine of self determination, so insistently welcomed by ex-President Wilson, is ignored that trouble arises. Great Britain and France, who were mutually dependent upon each other during the recent war, have found themselves at outs—not serious, but enough to indicate disagreements possible—and then there was a flare-up between France and Italy—not fatal to friendship, but irritating. The acute questions of the Orient growing out of spheres of influence forced upon weaker nations, and the occupancy of territory which must be held as it is by force. America finds that there is one tree in the garden, the fruit of which is forbidden if the nation would avoid international complications, and that tree is imperialism.

STEAMER COLLIDES WITH SCHOONER CUT IN HALF

Holyhead, England, Dec. 3.—The steamer Cambrai, conveying the Irish delegates Michael Collins and Gavin Duffy to Dublin for the Sinn Fein cabinet meeting today collided with a schooner in the Irish sea. The schooner was cut in half.

A detailed inspection of the Cambrai determined she was slightly damaged, and it was decided to return to Holyhead.

ONE HUNDRED MEN COMPLETE HIGHWAY

Nashauk, Dec. 3.—Virtually all of the grading on the Babcock highway between Nashauk and Keewatin has been completed. The road will be paved next spring. Drainage ditches are now being installed. One hundred men have been employed on the project.

NAT. NONPARTISAN LEAGUE WILL CEASE AS POLITICAL PARTY

TOWNLEY PLANS TO USE LEAGUE TO ENDORSE CANDIDATES IN OTHER PARTIES

SAYS OFFICE SEEKERS HAVE WRECKED LEAGUE—PRINCIPLES ARE ENDORSED

(By United Press.)

Minneapolis, Dec. 3.—The National Nonpartisan League may cease to be a political organization next year.

This information was given the United Press on reliable authority.

Instead of nominating candidates for political offices, the league in the future will merely endorse candidates for office, it was reported. This will be a reversion of the original plan of Arthur C. Townley, originator and president of the league. It will eliminate office seekers from the organization—the one thing that disrupted the league in North Dakota and resulted in the recall of the Nonpartisan office holders in that state last October.

Townley expects to take charge of the reorganization of the league when he has served his ninety days sentence in the Jackson county jail, for violating the espionage act.

Since the league swallowed the Republican party in North Dakota five years ago, scores of league members have been office holders, and many of them have "turned traitor" according to Townley.

The league has suffered from too many office seekers, he believes. If his plans carry, this situation will be avoided.

League leaders today point to the fact that the league office holders were recalled in North Dakota while the voters endorsed the league program. This is Townley's biggest argument for the program, and against the nomination of candidates.

Townley faces a stiff fight if he puts this plan before the state convention in North Dakota or Minnesota. Office holders and would-be office holders are well entrenched. They will fight any plan that Townley has to bar them from political jobs.

Politicians in both states fear the league as an independent organization more than as a political party. If independent, the league will be a "balance of power" in either state.

Under the new plan, it is reported, the league would work along the lines of the anti-saloon league—a body without candidates, but endorsing candidates.

COUNTY DIVISION TO BE VOTED ON

GOV. PREUS ISSUES OFFICIAL PROCLAMATION FOR NEXT GENERAL ELECTION

An election will be held in Cass county next November at the general state election, when the voters of the county will decide whether the county shall be divided into two counties. If the proposal carries, the southern part of present Cass county will be known as Clover county and Pine River will be the county seat. Walker at present is the county seat of Cass county and would continue to be the county seat of the remaining Cass county.

This election was authorized at St. Paul November 22nd, by permission of Governor Preus, ordering such election. A petition signed by 1,800 voters of Cass county asked for the election. The law requires that the governor order an election on petition of 25 per cent of the voters at the latest election, in this case, requiring 1,260 signers.

The petition names the persons who would be the new county commissioners of the proposed county. The county board then would select the county officials to act until the next general election.

COUNTY DIVISION TO BE VOTED ON

GOV. PREUS ISSUES OFFICIAL PROCLAMATION FOR NEXT GENERAL ELECTION

An election will be held in Cass county next November at the general state election, when the voters of the county will decide whether the county shall be divided into two counties. If the proposal carries, the southern part of present Cass county will be known as Clover county and Pine River will be the county seat. Walker at present is the county seat of Cass county and would continue to be the county seat of the remaining Cass county.

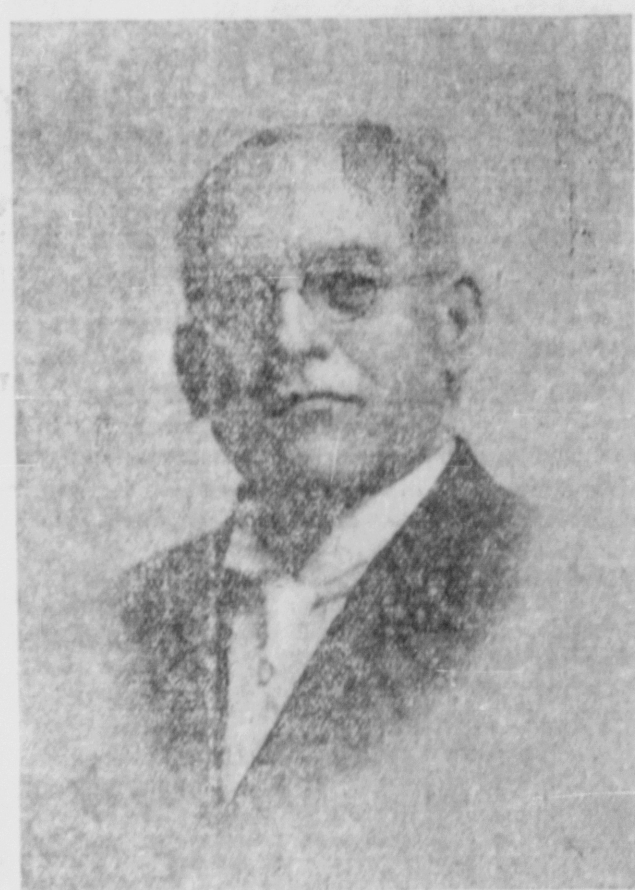

This election was authorized at St. Paul November 22nd, by permission of Governor Preus, ordering such election. A petition signed by 1,800 voters of Cass county asked for the election. The law requires that the governor order an election on petition of 25 per cent of the voters at the latest election, in this case, requiring 1,260 signers.

The petition names the persons who would be the new county commissioners of the proposed county. The county board then would select the county officials to act until the next general election.

Eklund-Hoff

A pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Johnson, 1 Kindred street, N. E. Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock when Miss Alida Josephine Eklund became the wife of Helmer Theodore Hoff.

The Johnson home was decorated very beautifully for the occasion. Jewell J. Philstrom played the wedding march. Little Winifred Johnson and Genevieve A. Philstrom were the flower girls. The bridal couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Johnson.

Rev. O. S. Winther, pastor of the Bethlehem Lutheran church, spoke the words that made them man and wife, the ring ceremony being used. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of roses. The bridesmaid wore a flesh colored crepe de chine gown and carried a bouquet of carnations.

After the wedding a most delicious chicken dinner was served by Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Johnson being the sister of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoff are young people from Pequot, where Mr. Hoff owns a farm, and where he with his bride will make their future home.

Guests at the wedding were M. and Mrs. O. Hoff and family, Mr. and H. P. Rasmussen and family, all of Pequot, and Mrs. N. W. Philstrom of Henderson, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Philstrom and family and Mrs. O. S. Winther, of this city.

Best wishes is extended this couple by many friends for a happy married life.

Borneo Natives Fond of Beads.

The natives of Borneo are the great bead lovers of the world. In many instances there are collections of beads which have been in one family for centuries, and which cannot be bought, they are so cherished by the owners. An examination of these collections often reveals some precious gems, which have been cut by the native artisans in bead shape.

WHAT ABOUT OUR Y. M. C. A.

Brainerd needs a new Y.M.C.A. At the meeting of the Board of Directors of the present Y.M.C.A. called to discuss the advisability of closing the building, perhaps permanently, it was decided to raise first enough money to pay the debts of the organization and sound out the sentiment regarding discontinuing the organization. This may be of serious consequence to Brainerd.

The demands of modern life are such that no Y.M.C.A. can exist unless suitable quarters are established and the members given the advantages they find elsewhere and expect to find in Y.M.C.A. quarters. The present building is so old and inconveniently arranged that it is impossible to offer anything to members or prospective members or accomplish anything that will keep or bring members.

The years of the war have developed a new group of leaders in Y.M.C.A. work. New methods are used and new things are taught, but nothing new can be introduced into quarters like the present that do not permit offering inducements. A leader of wide experience would not be attracted by the local equipment, nor on account of what is in here could he be induced to stay. The Y.M.C.A. must offer more than just a building to rush into when it rains.

The financial outlook at present is most discouraging. Membership dues alone are insufficient to pay current ills. The building is used to a surprisingly great extent and for many, many purposes, and it would be a calamity to discontinue the organization. The Y.M.C.A. should be growing instead of decaying. A modern but unpretentious building should be built at once; a campaign should be started to establish a building fund; the organization should be conducted along modern lines to make the place an inducement for our young men, and Brainerd should be given a chance to boast of its Y.M.C.A. instead of being obliged to apologize for it.

LIBERTY BONDS STILL ADVANCE

Stock quotations of Liberty Bonds are again reported higher, the present level being 96 to 99 and a fraction, all issues except the 3 1/2's extending their recent advances. Comparison of the present market value of Liberty bonds with prices obtainable in May, 1920, shows a marked increase, which is as gratifying as it was unexpected to many.

It would not be fair, perhaps, to give to the Republican administration all the credit for all of this increase, but undoubtedly the better business methods and the sounder principles of government adopted by the present regime have had a large influence in bringing bonds back to a value for nearer the original investment. Investors in securities realize the importance of the changes in governmental policy, and their confidence in the present management of public business is reflected in the higher prices they are willing to pay for bonds. There is naturally a reflection of this movement in the prices obtainable for securities other than those of the United States.

SCRAP THE SUBMARINES

Great Britain's suggestion as to the scrapping of submarines looks good to us. If England, isolated and dependent, can stand the elimination of submarine craft, the United States, geographically and economically independent, if need be, surely ought to be able to get along without these pests of the sea. We should, of course, always have a protective navy of good, honest fighting ships, but the stealthy assassin-like undersea boats are best adapted to the murderous practices of the Hun, and would never be as valuable to a stay-at-home, mind-your-own-business nation like

America, as to one like Germany, under the empire, conspiring against its neighbors and willing to buy victory at any price. The submarine is more of an offensive than a defensive weapon. The suggestion made by Mr. Balfour on the part of Great Britain is receiving much attention and no doubt will be given due consideration by the Armament Conference.

BALANCE OVER $12,000,000

The state's cash balance was decreased by over $1,000,000 in November, and there will be a shrinkage during this month of between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000. The state started out Dec. 1, however, with a cash balance of over $12,000,000. The heaviest disbursements in November were from the trunk highway fund, aggregating over $1,000,000, and there were also large disbursements for the prison twine plant.

During November the state paid out an average of $175,679.52 each working day, or $4,216,311.07 for the entire month, while receipts totaled $3,025,422.53.

CONFERENCE OF EDUCATORS

A meeting of educators of Minnesota will be held in Minneapolis Dec. 9 and 10 for a conference upon a definite educational program for the state. It was thought necessary to call a special conference to formulate a program because of the closeness of the next annual meeting, in October, 1922, to the general election in November. This would not allow sufficient time for the full discussion and presentation of the program to the newly elected legislators.

The conference is called by the Minnesota Educational Association, and will be attended by county and city superintendents, representative teachers and leading educators of the state.

We notice by a telegram from Toronto, Canada, that "importation of liquor into Ontario from the United States will be prevented in the future," as a result of arrangements just completed between American and Ontario authorities. And here we've all been under the impression that Canada was a "booze" country and we had prohibition in the U. S.!

DAY AND EASTMAN

Frank Day recently declared in the Fairmont Sentinel that "there isn't a newspaper in Minnesota that cannot make its town dry and decent if it will attach a battery to its backbone." This Alvah Eastman reproduced in the St. Cloud Journal-Press with the rather pointed comment: "And they 'do say' Fairmont is the wettest town in Minnesota."

Both Frank and Alvah are probably right: maybe Frank's battery hasn't been charged lately. Now we're naturally curious to hear from Frank as to St. Cloud's rating as a "wet town."

The Fertile Journal notes that a car of good coal recently unloaded at Fertile cost $224 and the freight on it was $277. We quite agree with the Journal in the conclusion that "it is hardly necessary to tell any sane person that there is something decidedly wrong somewhere."

Democratic newspapers are finding fault with the work of the special session of the Republican Congress, and they would have found fault whatever the majority might have done.

Christmas comes slowly to children because they don't have to pay rent, in the opinion of the Toledo Blade.

A discouraged exchange complains that the kick is more often on the home brew than in it.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. will meet in special meeting Monday p. m. at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. F. W. Wilson, 23 Kingwood street. Mrs. Siger, State President of the W. C. T. U. will be there and speak on law enforcement.

All ladies of Brainerd interested in the enforcement of our laws and the protection of their homes should be present.

Pity the poor man who forgets which set of books he is keeping for private use and which for income tax purposes.

WHAT ABOUT OUR Y. M. C. A.

Brainerd needs a new Y.M.C.A. At the meeting of the Board of Directors of the present Y.M.C.A. called to discuss the advisability of closing the building, perhaps permanently, it was decided to raise first enough money to pay the debts of the organization and sound out the sentiment regarding discontinuing the organization. This may be of serious consequence to Brainerd.

The demands of modern life are such that no Y.M.C.A. can exist unless suitable quarters are established and the members given the advantages they find elsewhere and expect to find in Y.M.C.A. quarters. The present building is so old and inconveniently arranged that it is impossible to offer anything to members or prospective members or accomplish anything that will keep or bring members.

The years of the war have developed a new group of leaders in Y.M.C.A. work. New methods are used and new things are taught, but nothing new can be introduced into quarters like the present that do not permit offering inducements. A leader of wide experience would not be attracted by the local equipment, nor on account of what is in here could he be induced to stay. The Y.M.C.A. must offer more than just a building to rush into when it rains.

The financial outlook at present is most discouraging. Membership dues alone are insufficient to pay current ills. The building is used to a surprisingly great extent and for many, many purposes, and it would be a calamity to discontinue the organization. The Y.M.C.A. should be growing instead of decaying. A modern but unpretentious building should be built at once; a campaign should be started to establish a building fund; the organization should be conducted along modern lines to make the place an inducement for our young men, and Brainerd should be given a chance to boast of its Y.M.C.A. instead of being obliged to apologize for it.

LIBERTY BONDS STILL ADVANCE

Stock quotations of Liberty Bonds are again reported higher, the present level being 96 to 99 and a fraction, all issues except the 3 1/2's extending their recent advances. Comparison of the present market value of Liberty bonds with prices obtainable in May, 1920, shows a marked increase, which is as gratifying as it was unexpected to many.

It would not be fair, perhaps, to give to the Republican administration all the credit for all of this increase, but undoubtedly the better business methods and the sounder principles of government adopted by the present regime have had a large influence in bringing bonds back to a value far nearer the original investment. Investors in securities realize the importance of the changes in governmental policy, and their confidence in the present management of public business is reflected in the higher prices they are willing to pay for bonds. There is naturally a reflection of this movement in the prices obtainable for securities other than those of the United States.

SCRAP THE SUBMARINES

Great Britain's suggestion as to the scrapping of submarines looks good to us. If England, isolated and dependent, can stand the elimination of submarine craft, the United States, geographically and economically independent, if need be, surely ought to be able to get along without these pests of the sea. We should, of course, always have a protective navy of good, honest fighting ships, but the stealthy assassin-like undersea boats are best adapted to the murderous practices of the Hun, and would never be as valuable to a stay-at-home, mind-your-own-business nation like

America, as to one like Germany, under the empire, conspiring against its neighbors and willing to buy victory at any price. The submarine is more of an offensive than a defensive weapon. The suggestion made by Mr. Balfour on the part of Great Britain is receiving much attention and no doubt will be given due consideration by the Armament Conference.

BALANCE OVER $12,000,000

The state's cash balance was decreased by over $1,000,000 in November, and there will be a shrinkage during this month of between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000. The state started out Dec. 1, however, with a cash balance of over $12,000,000. The heaviest disbursements in November were from the trunk highway fund, aggregating over $1,000,000, and there were also large disbursements for the prison twine plant.

During November the state paid out an average of $175,679.62 each working day, or $4,216,311.07 for the entire month, while receipts totaled $3,025,422.53.

CONFERENCE OF EDUCATORS

A meeting of educators of Minnesota will be held in Minneapolis Dec. 9 and 10 for a conference upon a definite educational program for the state. It was thought necessary to call a special conference to formulate a program because of the closeness of the next annual meeting, in October, 1922, to the general election in November. This would not allow sufficient time for the full discussion and presentation of the program to the newly elected legislators.

The conference is called by the Minnesota Educational Association, and will be attended by county and city superintendents, representative teachers and leading educators of the state.

We notice by a telegram from Toronto, Canada, that "importation of liquor into Ontario from the United States will be prevented in the future," as a result of arrangements just completed between American and Ontario authorities. And here we've all been under the impression that Canada was a "booze" country and we had prohibition in the U. S.!

DAY AND EASTMAN

Frank Day recently declared in the Fairmont Sentinel that "there isn't a newspaper in Minnesota that cannot make its town dry and decent if it will attach a battery to its backbone." This Alvah Eastman reproduced in the St. Cloud Journal-Press with the rather pointed comment: "And they 'do say' Fairmont is the wettest town in Minnesota."

Both Frank and Alvah are probably right: maybe Frank's battery hasn't been charged lately. Now we're naturally curious to hear from Frank as to St. Cloud's rating as a "wet town."

The Fertile Journal notes that a car of good coal recently unloaded at Fertile cost $224 and the freight on it was $277. We quite agree with the Journal in the conclusion that "it is hardly necessary to tell any sane person that there is something decidedly wrong somewhere."

Democratic newspapers are finding fault with the work of the special session of the Republican Congress, and they would have found fault whatever the majority might have done.

Christmas comes slowly to children because they don't have to pay rent, in the opinion of the Toledo Blade.

A discouraged exchange complains that the kick is more often on the home brew than in it.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. will meet in special meeting Monday p. m. at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. F. W. Wilson, 23 Kingwood street. Mrs. Siger, State President of the W. C. T. U. will be there and speak on law enforcement. All ladies of Brainerd interested in the enforcement of our laws and the protection of their homes should be present.

Pity the poor man who forgets which set of books he is keeping for private use and which for income tax purposes.

Mother and the girls are beginning to talk loud enough by silly old Dad to catch on to what they want for Christmas.

ELKS MEMORIAL SERVICE SUNDAY

Hon. Lawrence C. Hodgson, (Larry Ho), Mayor of St. Paul, to be the Memorial Speaker

AT THE NEW PARK THEATRE

4 Brothers Passed Beyond, Brothers H. M. Gann, Chas. Katz, T. G. Butler and Milton McFadden

The memorial services of Brainerd Lodge of Elks, No. 615, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the New Park theatre. The Elks will assemble at the lodge room at 2 o'clock and march in a body to the theatre. A large attendance is expected from city, countryside, the range and distant points of Brainerd lodge jurisdiction.

Four Brothers Died

Death's harvest of 1921 included four brothers, H. M. Gann of Lake Wales, Florida, who died December 3, 1920; Charles Katz who died in Brainerd February 2, 1921; T. G. Butler of Akeley who died July 15, 1921; Milton McFadden of Brainerd who died October 18, 1921.

The eulogy for Brothers Gann and Katz will be delivered by R. R. Gould. The eulogy for Brothers Butler and McFadden will be delivered by Judge Walter F. Wieland.

Hon. L. C. Hodgson

Hon. Lawrence C. Hodgson, (Larry Ho), mayor of St. Paul, one of the most noted orators of the northwest, a master of limpid English, will deliver the memorial address. No one can afford to miss hearing him.

HON. L. C. HODGSON

Mr. Hodgson had many requests to deliver memorial addresses this season, but set aside all others in favor of appearing at Brainerd. He has a wide acquaintance in Brainerd and is beloved by Brainerd lodge of Elks.

He is expected in Brainerd on the Saturday afternoon St. Paul train and the memorial committee will meet him at the train and escort him to the Ransford hotel.

Memorial Committee

The memorial committee is composed of Col. C. D. Johnson, S. F. Alderman, Clyde E. Parker, R. R. Gould and A. C. Mraz.

The Ushers

The ushers will be Milton Mahlum, B. L. Lagerquist, A. C. Ebert, A. P. Drogseth, of Brainerd and J. P. Anderson, of Crosby.

Program in Detail

The program in detail follows: Processional, "Crowning March" by Meyerbeer by orchestra.

Opening ceremonies by the lodge. Opening ode sung to the air of "Auld Lang Syne".

Prayer by Rev. Frederick Errington.

Vocal solo by Mrs. Mal D. Clark. During ritual following the orchestra will softly play "Ave Maria".

"Thanatopsis" by C. D. Johnson. Eulogy for Brothers Gann and Katz delivered by R. R. Gould.

Eulogy for Brothers Butler and McFadden delivered by Judge Walter F. Wieland.

Vocal solo by S. F. Alderman. Vocal solo by S. F. Alderman.

Memorial address by Hon. Lawrence C. Hodgson, of St. Paul Lodge No. 59.

Vocal solo by A. C. Mraz. Closing ceremonies by the lodge.

Closing ode to the air of "Home, Sweet Home".

Benediction by Rev. Frederick Errington.

Recessional, Grand March from "Aida" by Verdi, played by orchestra.

A Correction

The names given in the Brainerd Dispatch last evening as being the committee to arrange for the fair to be given by the Business and Professional Women's club soon were not the names of those on the committee, but the new members admitted to the club at its meeting Wednesday evening. Miss Esther Gustafson is the chairman of the fair committee, assisted by fifteen of the members.

"FOUR HORSEMEN OF APOCALYPSE"

Gaunt Destroyers Visioned by St. John Flash in Review in Ibanes's Great Story

PICTURE MARKS AN EPOCH

Portrays the Conquest, War, Famine and Death Unleashed by the Four Horsemen

The thrilling moment in the "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" came when the American army entered the fray and threw their energy, enthusiasm and devotion into the common cause, relieving the panting Frenchmen. It was there that applause burst from a crowded house at the New Park Theatre, witnessing the first night's presentation of Vicente Blasco Ibanez's masterpiece.

And in the next flash one sees the Salvation Army hut and one of the bonneted lassies dealing out doughnuts.

"The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" marks an epoch in the silent drama, just as did "The Birth of a Nation". Through it all gallop these four horsemen, spoken of by St. John in the Book of the Apocalypse—the grim figures of Conquest, War, Famine and Death.

And with them, woven in the thread of the story one sees Selfishness and Butterfly Folly displaced by Patriotism and Devotion. One glimpses the desolation of war, its fiery course, the heights of exaltation and the slimy depths of degradation.

For sheer realism it cannot be excelled. One forgets one is looking at moving pictures and lives and feels the scenes. A master hand interprets story and another master interprets it in pulsating screen.

And the wish that grips the heart of every thinking man and woman is that this world must be made safe against this group of horsemen. One senses what may be in store again for humanity should the four be unleashed.

The last scene shows the myriads of crosses in the French cemetery. It is desolate. At the grave of Julio, Desnoyers turns to Teberhoff.

"The angel of peace" said Desnoyers, "has driven off the Four Horsemen".

Teberhoff shakes his head. "For a Time", said he, "but they will ride again".

And he quoted: "And power was given to them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with the beasts of the earth".

The Brainerd production was enhanced by the orchestral music and the singing. The attendance showed Brainerd appreciates the best in pictures. Its presentation attracted to Brainerd many out of town people. The New Park Theatre is to be commended for showing this picture.

DEC. 10TH RED LETTER DAY

December 10th promises to be a red letter day for the people of Brainerd and vicinity. The Woodhead Motor Company are staging the largest automobile auction sale ever held in this part of the country.

12 Ford Touring cars, 1 couplet, 1 Ton Truck, 1 Fordson tractor, 2 stationary gas engines, plows and a saw arbor will be offered to the public at their own prices.

One of the biggest features will be the awarding of prizes. The company will give away absolutely free, $150.00 in prizes, the grand prize being a $35.00 kitchen cabinet. Other prizes include cord tires, fabric tires, inner tubes, sets of spark plugs, camping tables, tire chains, in fact all of the prizes are of much value.

This afternoon at 2:00 p. m. a street parade was held on the streets of Brainerd displaying the various cars and tractors to be offered for sale next Saturday.

Sweeney Says:

Skating will be the most popular sport in Brainerd this winter. With a fine new Rink and good skates at a low price every one can enjoy the greatest of winter sports.

COCK-A-DOODLE-DO. CLUCK! CLUCK! CLUCK!

Are the Familiar Sounds that Greeted the Residents of the City Near the Animal Hospital

POULTRY SHOW HUGE SUCCESS

Fine Exhibition of Prize Poultry Being Made—All Should Attend and See the Fine Birds

No alarm clocks are needed in the vicinity of the Animal hospital since the Crow Wing County Poultry Association opened its two days' exhibition. The morning chorus begins early and all through the day the raucous crows of the cocks are heard from time to time, followed by the falsetto notes of the cockerels. The hens have been too busy studying the new styles in plumage to do much serious work, but a few eggs have been laid, accompanied by much cackling—a true case of "Much ado about nothing".

One old stoic rooster stands at attention from early morning until late at night. "Going to bed with the chickens" is an empty phrase, so far as he is concerned, for he has not slept since he was entered, nor will he eat or drink. Right beside him is the cutest little Silver Spangled Hamburg pullet, but he pays no attention to her nor to any of the others who share the room with him. The most unusual breeds occupy the room with him, among them the Mediterranean breeds, consisting of Single-combed Leghorns, Anconas, and some olive black minorcas. There are also a few white Wyandottes, that come more under the head of general-purpose breeds.

To the left of this Spinx-like red rooster are Bantam Anconas, and then comes the most attractive pair in the whole exhibit, a cock and hen of the species known as Chinese Pheasants. These are the Ring-necked Pheasants, and have a collar of white, and the tinge of the plumage is most beautiful. In certain lights the effect is almost metallic. The cock has a remarkably long tail, of which he seems very proud. However, the Pathe rooster seems to envy him not in the least, and the composition of this exhibit from The Hall Music House is noteworthy.

The Bourbon Red Turkeys are attracting much attention, also the African goose and the pair of Muscovy ducks. Ed. C. Bauman has a splendid exhibit of White Leghorns, and already has an order for fifty eggs for spring settings. Sam Hawkins has a rooster at the show that is called by those who are authorities a "perfect" show bird. He has all the points that are required, including a low carried tail. His birds were washed and had their toes "manicured" and were all dolled up for the occasion.

Practically all the exhibits are in fine condition, and the showing is certainly a credit to Crow Wing county. All should take advantage of the opportunity to view these choice birds and by their presence encourage those who have made the exhibition possible.

When you look at what some women married, you know that nothing less than love could have persuaded them to do it.

RED CROSS APPEAL NEARS COMPLETION

House to House Canvass Has Been Made by Field Workers, Also Assisting American Legion

GETTING SERVICE MEN DATA

So Far Nearly 400 Reports on Ex-Service Men Have Been Prepared and Turned In

The Red Cross campaign for enrollment of members in the city is nearing completion. A complete house to house canvass has been attempted, however the field workers report that in some instances, no one was at home even on second and third calls and consequently some have been missed by the canvassers. In order that these may have the privilege of joining the Red Cross, arrangements have been made at the office of G. W. Chadbourne and at the Red Cross office in the Chamber of Commerce for people to take out membership.

The field workers doing the soliciting work also prepared questionnaires on ex-service men which are to serve as a foundation for the special service. Red Cross has provided for ex-servicemen desiring assistance in matters pertaining to a disability incurred in the army, the obtaining of Victory Medals, unsettled bonus claims, war risk insurance matters, etc. To facilitate the handling of this work, the Red Cross has established an office in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

The campaign in the larger towns throughout the county is being carried on by the respective Red Cross organizations. On the range the American Legion posts have taken over the work of interviewing ex-servicemen relative to their wants. In the rural districts outlying from the cities and villages, the campaign is being carried on, in the majority of cases, by the respective school clerks.

It is of utmost importance that the rural districts respond freely so as to assure the continuance of the rural county nurse, as all expense incident to keeping the county nurse comes from the funds collected on this drive outside of the larger towns.

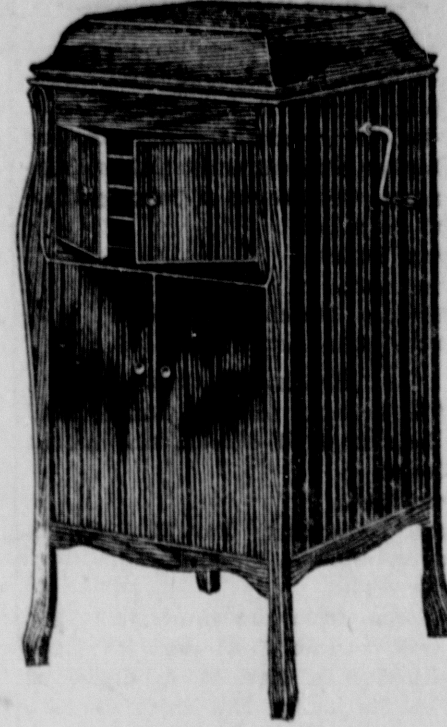

So far nearly four hundred reports on ex-service men have been prepared and turned in to the Red Cross office in the Chamber. Of this number, seventy-six per cent require assistance pertaining to some subject, or another, the greater number being applications for Victory Medals.

Postal cards, directed to the ex-servicemen concerned in the city and vicinity, have been sent out advising them to call at the Chamber and bring what supporting evidence they have on hand pertaining to their case with them. Many are taking advantage of this opportunity to have their wants attended to. All are urgently requested to ask for any assistance they might wish without unnecessarily delaying as this far reaching service is but temporary and the work involved often requires considerable time.

The morning chorus begins early and all through the day the raucous crows of the cocks are heard from time to time, followed by the falsetto notes of the cockerels. The hens have been too busy studying the new styles in plumage to do much serious work, but a few eggs have been laid, accompanied by much cackling—a true case of "Much ado about nothing".

One old stoic rooster stands at attention from early morning until late at night. "Going to bed with the chickens" is an empty phrase, so far as he is concerned, for he has not slept since he was entered, nor will he eat or drink. Right beside him is the cutest little Silver Spangled Hamburg pullet, but he pays no attention to her nor to any of the others who share the room with him. The most unusual breeds occupy the room with him, among them the Mediterranean breeds, consisting of Single-combed Leghorns, Anconas, and some olive black minorcas. There are also a few white Wyandottes, that come more under the head of general-purpose breeds.

To the left of this Spinx-like red rooster are Bantam Anconas, and then comes the most attractive pair in the whole exhibit, a cock and hen of the species known as Chinese Pheasants. These are the Ring-necked Pheasants, and have a collar of white, and the tinge of the plumage is most beautiful. In certain lights the effect is almost metallic. The cock has a remarkably long tail, of which he seems very proud. However, the Pathe rooster seems to envy him not in the least, and the composure of this exhibit from The Hall Music House is noteworthy.

The Bourbon Red Turkeys are attracting much attention, also the African goose and the pair of Muscovy ducks. Ed. C. Bauman has a splendid exhibit of White Leghorns, and already has an order for fifty eggs for spring settings. Sam Hawkins has a rooster at the show that is called by those who are authorities a "perfect" show bird. He has all the points that are required, including a low carried tail. His birds were washed and had their toes "manicured" and were all dolled up for the occasion.

Practically all the exhibits are in fine condition, and the showing is certainly a credit to Crow Wing county. All should take advantage of the opportunity to view these choice birds and by their presence encourage those who have made the exhibition possible.

When you look at what some women married, you know that nothing less than love could have persuaded them to do it.

RED CROSS APPEAL NEARS COMPLETION

House to House Canvass Has Been Made by Field Workers, Also Assisting American Legion

GETTING SERVICE MEN DATA

So Far Nearly 400 Reports on Ex-Service Men Have Been Prepared and Turned In

The Red Cross campaign for enrollment of members in the city is nearing completion. A complete house to house canvass has been attempted, however the field workers report that in some instances, no one was at home even on second and third calls and consequently some have been missed by the canvassers. In order that these may have the privilege of joining the Red Cross, arrangements have been made at the office of G. W. Chadbourne and at the Red Cross office in the Chamber of Commerce for people to take out membership.

The field workers doing the soliciting work also prepared questionnaires on ex-service men which are to serve as a foundation for the special service. Red Cross has provided for ex-service men desiring assistance in matters pertaining to a disability incurred in the army, the obtaining of Victory Medals, unsettled bonus claims, war risk insurance matters, etc. To facilitate the handling of this work, the Red Cross has established an office in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

The campaign in the larger towns throughout the county is being carried on by the respective Red Cross organizations. On the range the American Legion posts have taken over the work of interviewing ex-service men relative to their wants. In the rural districts outlying from the cities and villages, the campaign is being carried on, in the majority of cases, by the respective school clerks.

It is of utmost importance that the rural districts respond freely so as to assure the continuance of the rural county nurse, as all expense incident to keeping the county nurse comes from the funds collected on this drive outside of the larger towns.

So far nearly four hundred reports on ex-service men have been prepared and turned in to the Red Cross office in the Chamber. Of this number, seventy-six per cent require assistance pertaining to some subject, or another, the greater number being applications for Victory Medals.

Postal cards, directed to the ex-service men concerned in the city and vicinity, have been sent out advising them to call at the Chamber and bring what supporting evidence they have on hand pertaining to their case with them. Many are taking advantage of this opportunity to have their wants attended to. All are urgently requested to ask for any assistance they might wish without unnecessarily delaying as this far reaching service is but temporary and the work involved often requires considerable time.

Why Not Let the APEX Do Your Washing

You can find out for yourself, why the clothes are completely turned 76 times a minute. Why the Apex takes less water, why it washes the clothes so clean and so quickly and washes the finest laces without injury and last, but not least, why there is no cylinder to lift out.

Please do not confuse this machine with the galvanized machine which is being advertised in St. Paul for $120, as a great many people have. The machine we are pushing is the copper tub machine. It is the cleanest and best.

(By United Press)

Educational Week

St. Paul, Dec. 3.—"Know your schools" is the slogan of Education Week, designated by proclamation of Governor Preus as Dec. 4 to 10.

All citizens are urged to visit their community schools, learn what they are doing, hear their problems and take steps to facilitate the education of the nation's young.

Greater cooperation on the part of all citizens will materially advance the cause of education, according to Gov. Preus in his proclamation.

People throughout the nation are asked to participate in the program.

Farmers Believe in Cooperation
Bismarck, Dec. 3.—Farmers of the Northwest believe in cooperation. According to the 1920 census reports cooperative sales by farmers of Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North and South Dakota, Kansas and Nebraska totaled $300,820,000. Cooperative purchases totaled $43,115,000. Minnesota leads in this section in amount of cooperative sales with total of $82,760,000.

Of North Dakota's 77,690 farmers, 17,438 reported cooperative buying and selling in part of years. Total value of such sales in this state were $24,484,000 and of cooperative purchases of $3,840,000.

PACKERS ANNOUNCE MAN WHO STRIKES LOSES HIS JOB
Chicago, Dec. 3.—The strike of unionized packing employees, called for Monday, gained new impetus today when the chemical trade and butcher workmen's union ordered its members to walk out.

Packers are considering beating the strike. They expect to be able to win because of unemployment conditions.

Armour & Company announced that any man who strikes will lose all right to his job. Other packers took the same action.

150 WORKERS ON FORD R. R. GET VACATION
Springfield, Ohio, Dec. 3.—Section men and other workers on Henry Ford's D. T. & I. railroad began a month's vacation without pay today. The 150 men laid off were from different departments, but the largest class was 95 section men between Napoleon and Jackson. In addition 125 shopmen were reported laid off at Jackson. The reasons for the vacations were given as a slump in the coal trade and the between-season drop in automobile shipments.

SALVATION ARMY CAMPAIGN
Do Your Bit When Appeal Is Made Soon—Great Instrument of Relief of Suffering Humanity

At the showing of that famous picture, "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," the scene in which the Salvation Army hut was shown, with the Army lasses handing out hot doughnuts to the American soldiers near the firing line received applause second only to that given the flag of the United States.

The Salvation Army has won a place in the hearts of the public because of its unselfish devotion to the cause of suffering humanity. There is no place for selfishness in the Salvation Army. It is impossible for the man or woman with even the slightest taint of selfishness, business greed or social ambitions to remain within the ranks of the Army, for the remuneration is scant and the road is hard and rocky.

The Salvationist, even in the civilized lands, exists on a meager recompense. He has hardly enough for his simple needs, and he toils long hours at hard work.

We all agree that cleanliness should be taught; jobs should be found, "down and outers" should be reclaimed; and the unfortunate, the victims of circumstances or their own misdeeds given new hope and another chance.

There is an organization doing all this on a large scale, the Salvation Army. These same people who won the confidence and gratitude of our soldiers, are themselves of the poor, live among the poor and unfortunate, extending always the hand of mercy. They are welcome in the homes of the foreign districts of our cities, a place where they have the opportunity to teach the mothers how to cook and sew. In their slum nurseries mothers teach other mothers those fundamentals that make it possible for the infant to live and to thrive. By the help given the men are encouraged and become tax payers instead of tax consumers.

Please do your bit for the Appeal about to be made in Crow Wing county.

Monday Evening

The Monday evening program begins at 7:30 o'clock.

Greetings from Minnesota Congregational churches.

Public meeting to be addressed by visiting pastors. Everything in the service will be taken care of by the visitors and the following are expected: Revs. A. C. Bacon, Little Falls, G. P. Merrill, Alexandria; C. S. Sparkes of Sauk Center; J. Richmond Morgan, Fergus Falls; J. H. Yaggy of Glenwood; Noble S. Elders, Duluth; W. E. Hammond, Walker; L. J. Marsh of Aitkin and A. K. Voss, Superintendent of Congregational churches in Northern Minnesota.

Each pastor will make a contribution to this service which will not last longer than 9 o'clock.

Former Pastors' Night

The "Former Pastors' Night" will be the feature Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock with banquet and toastmaster.

Addresses by Reuben A. Beard of Fargo, North Dakota; Ernest A. Albin of Moorhead and Dr. George Phil Sheridan of Faribault.

Other churches have taken a splendid position with regard to the reopening services to be held at the First Congregational church on Sunday, December 4th by deciding to bring greetings to the people of the First Congregational church at the evening services.

Dr. Lesh, Superintendent of the Minnesota Conference of Congregational churches who is the preacher for the day is one of the strongest preachers in the conference. While engaged as superintendent, Dr. Lesh has had invitations to the pastorate of some of the strongest churches in the state, and has been in demand as a preacher outside of the state. His messages are intensely practical, applying Christian principles to the whole of life. Those who hear him on Sunday will be rewarded.

Julius Witham will play the violin.

AMUSEMENTS

At the New Park Sunday

"Don't spoil your wife and then blame her for the consequences" is the theme of "The House that Jazz Built," a clever and original domestic comedy which opens at the New Park theatre tomorrow at 5 o'clock with Wanda Hawley in the star role.

The story from the Saturday Evening Post story, "Sweetie Peach," by Sophie Kerr, tells of Frank and Cora Rodham who start married life in a modest suburban bungalow where the wife, alert, efficient and happy, is a fine housekeeper and a dandy pal.

"The House that Jazz Built" is an excellent diagnosis of one of the greatest dangers of married life. Miss Hawley does a splendid bit of work as Cora Rodham, her make-up in the "fat" scenes being a marvel of artistry. She is supported by an excellent cast. Forrest Stanley is a perfect type for the business-man husband, while Gladys George has the proper "chilled ice" beauty of Lila Drake, the society girl. Paul Perry handled the photography.

Norma Talmadge Picks Melodrama as Vehicle

Norma Talmadge's latest screen vehicle is an adaptation of Channing Pollock's successful stage melodrama, "The Sign on the Door," in which Marjorie Rameau appeared before the footlights. A remarkable cast was assembled to assist Norma in this production. Charles Richman, plays opposite Miss Talmadge, while Lew Cody has the heavy role. "The Sign on the Door" will be shown at the New Park Theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

Special Features for Banner Movie Week at New Park Theatre

The first attraction for the New Park Theatre's Banner Movie Week is Wanda Hawley in "The House that Jazz Built". This picture is of the same type as was shown for the Lincoln school benefit, and it is shown in conjunction with the regular vaudeville bill. The first performance will start at 5 o'clock and the evening prices will prevail at all three shows.

The vaudeville bill is made up of Leslie and Martin whose act is entitled "Little Miss Melody", and is heralded as being a crackerjack act. The Belldays are booked for act number two, and their skit is entitled "The Lady of the Falls. Henry Hartman is on the bill as number three and is a violinist of real ability. The final act is Machedow Brothers, who are gymnasts and just off the big time.

Norma Talmadge, in "The Sign on the Door" is booked as the feature attraction for Monday and Tuesday. This is Miss Talmadge's greatest picture and has recently completed a week run at the State theatre in Minneapolis. This is a picture that is sure to please as are all of her pictures. The comedy is a two reel educational comedy and is a scream from start to finish. On Wednesday and Thursday, Priscilla Dean in "Reputation", a wonderful super special feature. Mary Miles Minter in "Don't Call Me Little Girl" is booked for Friday. Saturday May MacAvoy in "Private Scandal" will be shown in conjunction with the regular vaudeville performance.

Palmer's Orchestra Superme will supply the music for the New Park theatre during the entire Banner Movie Week starting tomorrow. This is another one of the surprises for the patrons of the New Park theatre. A specially arranged musical program will be presented each evening with an overture at 8:50 o'clock each evening with exception of vaudeville nights.

Miss Eileen Percy Clever in New Play

Miss Eileen Percy, the blonde beauty, put over some good laughs and gave fine entertainment yesterday at the Lyceum Theatre where she appeared in her latest William Fox production, "Maid of the West." Miss Percy is particularly clever in this kind of story. She looked charming in her cowgirl clothes. The big action of the story takes place in the city, whither Eileen comes an heiress to be introduced into society and, according to her father's will, have a husband picked for her by her aunt. However, Eileen, after an awful fight with city crooks, picks her own husband. William Scott plays opposite Miss Percy and does excellent work as usual.

The same program will be shown again tonight.

Grace Davison and Montagu Love in "Man's Plaything"

When "Man's Plaything," starring Grace Davison and Montagu Love, is shown at the Lyceum theatre, Sunday matinee and night, local photoplay fans will have in store for them a rare entertainment treat. "Man's Plaything" tells the story of how a woman saved herself for a man, and how a man was saved by a woman.

A girl, Nellie Vaughan, who must make a living and support a family by being a flower girl at a race resort, is almost convinced by conditions that life is rotten to the core. Pelton Van Teel, son of a multi-millionaire, has made love to her, to which she has responded. Then she is told that it is all a game with him, designed to trap her, to make her his plaything. This information comes to her from Devlin Madox, who represents himself as a friend. She falls in with a plan that he proposes to trap Van Teel, instead of being trapped by him. Following a series of dramatic incidents, this latter plan is consummated. Then it is revealed that Madox had cooked up the procedure to lure Van Teel into tight corner, there to milk him of his money. When Nellie Vaughan comes to a realization of this, she fights back as only a woman can, for it has been demonstrated to her that Van Teel is true blue.

Bonus Claims Must Be Filed by Jan. 1

St. Paul, Dec. 3.—Claims for soldiers bonus must be filed before the last day of this month. If not filed by that time, they will not be considered by the state, Joseph O'Gordon, in charge of the bonus board staff in the capitol, declared today.

It is estimated that 127,000 men from Minnesota were in the service, and only 117,000 bonus claims have been filed. The state will probably save two million dollars if the other ten thousand men do not file claims this month.

CORN REMAINS KING OF FARM PRODUCTS

Washington, Dec. 3.—Corn is still king of the American farm products in point of money value. The census bureau, in a statement tonight, placed corn at the head of a list of 20 leading crops in 1919 with a total value

INTERCLASS BASKET BALL TOURNEY

Juniors Best Seniors and Sophomores the Freshies and Finally Won the Pennant from the Juniors

(Contributed by W. G.)

Last Tuesday and Wednesday the annual interclass basketball tourney was held at the Brainerd high school. Besides arousing the usual enthusiasm between classes, it gave Coaches Rosell and Rock an excellent opportunity to view the prospective material for this year's quints in action.

The Juniors played the Seniors on Tuesday and after a hard fight came out on the long end of a 7-4 score. The same evening the Sophomores eliminated the Freshmen with a score of 12-6. On Wednesday the Sophomores and Juniors fought it out for the pennant, the Sophomores claiming an easy victory by a 36-6 score and thus taking the pennant from the possession of the dignified Seniors and placing it in their own section of the assembly.

The candidates for the first and second teams will turn out for practice this Thursday and will start their regular workouts for their first game, on their own floor, December 9, with Aitkin. Both coaches assure us a winning team and it is hoped that the city will give its full support.

FIERY, ITCHING SKIN IS QUICKLY SOOTHED WITH THIS SULPHUR

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing subdues fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist. The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

A small jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store. Adv.

Educational Week

St. Paul, Dec. 3.—"Know your schools" is the slogan of Education Week, designated by proclamation of Governor Preus as Dec. 4 to 10.

All citizens are urged to visit their community schools, learn what they are doing, hear their problems and take steps to facilitate the education of the nation's young.

Greater cooperation on the part of all citizens will materially advance the cause of education, according to Gov. Preus in his proclamation.

People throughout the nation are asked to participate in the program.

Farmers Believe in Cooperation

Bismarck, Dec. 3.—Farmers of the Northwest believe in cooperation. According to the 1920 census reports cooperative sales by farmers of Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North and South Dakota, Kansas and Nebraska totalled $300,820,000. Cooperative purchases totalled $43,115,000. Minnesota leads in this section in amount of cooperative sales with total of $82,760,000.

Of North Dakota's 77,690 farmers, 17,438 reported cooperative buying and selling in part of years. Total value of such sales in this state were $24,484,000 and of cooperative purchases of $3,840,000.

PACKERS ANNOUNCE
MAN WHO STRIKES
LOSES HIS JOB

Chicago, Dec. 3.—The strike of unionized packing employees, called for Monday, gained new impetus today when the chemical trade and butcher workmen's union ordered its members to walk out.

Packers are considering beating the strike. They expect to be able to win because of unemployment conditions.

Armour & Company announced that any man who strikes will lose all right to his job. Other packers took the same action.

150 WORKERS ON FORD
R. R. GET VACATION

Springfield, Ohio, Dec. 3.—Section men and other workers on Henry Ford's D. T. & L. railroad began a month's vacation without pay today. The 150 men laid off were from different departments, but the largest class was 95 section men between Napoleon and Jackson. In addition 125 shopmen were reported laid off at Jackson. The reasons for the vacations were given as a slump in the coal trade and the between-season drop in automobile shipments.

SALVATION ARMY CAMPAIGN

Do Your Bit When Appeal Is Made
Soon—Great Instrument of Relief of Suffering Humanity

At the showing of that famous picture, "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," the scene in which the Salvation Army hut was shown, with the Army lasses handing out hot doughnuts to the American soldiers near the firing line received applause second only to that given the flag of the United States.

The Salvation Army has won a place in the hearts of the public because of its unselfish devotion to the cause of suffering humanity. There is no place for selfishness in the Salvation Army. It is impossible for the man or woman with even the slightest taint of selfishness, business greed or social ambitions to remain within the ranks of the Army, for the remuneration is scant and the road is hard and rocky.

The Salvationist, even in the civilized lands, exists on a meager recompense. He has hardly enough for his simple needs, and he toils long hours at hard work.

We all agree that cleanliness should be taught; jobs should be found, "down and outers" should be reclaimed; and the unfortunate, the victims of circumstances or their own misdeeds given new hope and another chance.

There is an organization doing all this on a large scale, the Salvation Army. These same people who won the confidence and gratitude of our soldiers, are themselves of the poor, live among the poor and unfortunate, extending always the hand of mercy. They are welcome in the homes of the foreign districts of our cities, a place where they have the opportunity to teach the mothers how to cook and sew. In their slum nurseries mothers teach other mothers those fundamentals that make it possible for the infant to live and to thrive. By the help given the men are encouraged and become tax payers instead of tax consumers.

Please do your bit for the Appeal about to be made in Crow Wing county.

Services of Rededication

Benediction. Rev. Arthur C. Smith.

Monday Evening

The Monday evening program begins at 7:30 o'clock.

Greetings from Minnesota Congregational churches.

Public meeting to be addressed by visiting pastors. Everything in the service will be taken care of by the visitors and the following are expected: Revs. A. C. Bacon, Little Falls, G. P. Merrill, Alexandria; C. S. Sparks of Sauk Center; J. Richmond Morgan, Fergus Falls; J. H. Yaggy of Glenwood; Noble S. Elderkin, Duluth; W. E. Hammond, Walker; L. J. Marsh of Aitkin and A. K. Voss, Superintendent of Congregational churches in Northern Minnesota.

Each pastor will make a contribution to this service which will not last longer than 9 o'clock.

Former Pastors' Night

The "Former Pastors' Night" will be the feature Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock with banquet and toastmaster.

Addresses by Reuben A. Beard of Fargo, North Dakota; Ernest A. Albin of Moorhead and Dr. George Phil Sheridan of Faribault.

Other churches have taken a splendid position with regard to the opening services to be held at the First Congregational church on Sunday, December 4th by deciding to bring greetings to the people of the First Congregational church at the evening services.

Dr. Leshar, Superintendent of the Minnesota Conference of Congregational churches who is the preacher for the day is one of the strongest preachers in the conference. While engaged as superintendent, Dr. Leshar has had invitations to the pastorate of some of the strongest churches in the state, and has been in demand as a preacher outside of the state. His messages are intensely practical, applying Christian principles to the whole of life. Those who hear him on Sunday will be rewarded.

Julius Witham will play the violin.

AMUSEMENTS

At the New Park Sunday

"Don't spoil your wife and then blame her for the consequences" is the theme of "The House that Jazz Built," a clever and original domestic comedy which opens at the New Park theatre tomorrow at 5 o'clock with Wanda Hawley in the star role.

The story from the Saturday Evening Post story, "Sweetie Peach," by Sophie Kerr, tells of Frank and Cora Rodham who start married life in a modest suburban bungalow where the wife, alert, efficient and happy, is a fine housekeeper and a dandy pal.

"The House that Jazz Built" is an excellent diagnosis of one of the greatest dangers of married life. Miss Hawley does a splendid bit of work as Cora Rodham, her make-up in the "fat" scenes being a marvel of artistry. She is supported by an excellent cast. Forrest Stanley is a perfect type for the business-man husband, while Gladys George has the proper "chilled ice" beauty of Lila Drake, the society girl. Paul Perry handled the photography.

Norma Talmadge Picks Melodrama as Vehicle

Norma Talmadge's latest screen vehicle is an adaptation of Channing Pollock's successful stage melodrama, "The Sign on the Door," in which Marjorie Rameau appeared before the footlights. A remarkable cast was assembled to assist Norma in this production. Charles Richman, plays opposite Miss Talmadge, while Lew Cody has the heavy role. "The Sign on the Door" will be shown at the New Park Theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

Special Features for Banner Movie

Week at New Park Theatre

The first attraction for the New Park Theatre's Banner Movie Week is Wanda Hawley in "The House that Jazz Built." This picture is of the same type as was shown for the Lincoln school benefit, and it is shown in conjunction with the regular vaudeville bill. The first performance will start at 5 o'clock and the evening prices will prevail at all three shows.

The vaudeville bill is made up of Leslie and Martin whose act is entitled "Little Miss Melody", and is heralded as being a crackerjack act. The Bellids are booked for act number two, and their skill is entitled "The Lady of the Falls." Henry Hartman is on the bill as number three and is a violinist of real ability. The final act is Machedow Brothers, who are gymnasts and just off the big time.

Norma Talmadge, in "The Sign on the Door" is booked as the feature attraction for Monday and Tuesday. This is Miss Talmadge's greatest picture and has recently completed a week run at the State theatre in Minneapolis. This is a picture that is sure to please as are all of her pictures. The comedy is a two reel educational comedy and is a scream from start to finish. On Wednesday and Thursday, Priscilla Dean in "Reputation", a wonderful super special feature. Mary Miles Minter in "Don't Call Me Little Girl" is booked for Friday. Saturday May MacAvry in "Private Scandal" will be shown in conjunction with the regular vaudeville performance.

Palmer's Orchestra Superme will supply the music for the New Park theatre during the entire Banner Movie Week starting tomorrow. This is another one of the surprises for the patrons of the New Park theatre. A specially arranged musical program will be presented each evening with an overture at 8:50 o'clock each evening with exception of vaudeville nights.

Miss Eileen Percy Clever in New Play

Miss Eileen Percy, the blonde beauty, put over some good laughs and gave fine entertainment yesterday at the Lyceum Theatre where she appeared in her latest William Fox production, "Maid of the West." Miss Percy is particularly clever in this kind of story. She looked charming in her cowgirl clothes. The big action of the story takes place in the city, whither Eileen comes an heiress to

SAID CAN'T BE DONE

"My experience with doctors and medicines caused me to lose faith in both, and when a friend told me that May's Wonderful Remedy would cure my stomach trouble I told him 'it can't be done.' However, he finally persuaded me to try it and to my surprise it did. All symptoms of acute indigestion and gas having disappeared." be introduced into society and, according to her father's will, have a husband picked for her by her aunt. However, Eileen, after an awful fight with city crooks, picks her own husband. William Scott plays opposite Miss Percy and does excellent work as usual.

The same program will be shown again tonight.

Grace Davison and Montagu Love in "Man's Plaything"

When "Man's Plaything," starring Grace Davison and Montagu Love, is shown at the Lyceum theatre, Sunday matinee and night, local photography fans will have in store for a rare entertainment treat. "Man's Plaything" tells the story of how a woman saved herself for a man, and how a man was saved by a woman.

A girl, Nellie Vaughan, who must make a living and support a family by being a flower girl at a racy resort, is almost convinced by conditions that life is rotten to the core. Pelton Van Teel, son of a multi-millionaire, has made love to her, to which she has responded. Then she is told that it is all a game with him, designed to trap her, to make her his plaything. This information comes to her from Devlin Madox, who represents himself as a friend. She falls in with a plan that he proposes to trap Van Teel, instead of being trapped by him. Following a series of dramatic incidents, this latter plan is consummated. Then it is revealed that Madox had cooked up the procedure to lure Van Teel into tight corner, there to milk him of his money. When Nellie Vaughan comes to a realization of this, she fights back as only a woman can, for it has been demonstrated to her that Van Teel is true blue.

Bonus Claims Must Be Filed by Jan. 1

St. Paul, Dec. 3.—Claims for soldiers bonus must be filed before the last day of this month. If not filed by that time, they will not be considered by the state, Joseph O'Gordon, in charge of the bonus board staff in the capitol, declared today.

It is estimated that 127,000 men from Minnesota were in the service, and only 117,000 bonus claims have been filed. The state will probably save two million dollars if the other ten thousand men do not file claims this month.

CORN REMAINS KING OF FARM PRODUCTS

Washington, Dec. 3.—Corn is still king of the American farm products in point of money value. The census bureau, in a statement tonight, placed corn at the head of a list of 20 leading crops in 1919 with a total value

Rub Backache Away

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica or maybe from a strain, and you'll get blessed relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on and out comes of $3,507,797,102 out of an aggregate value for the whole list of about $13,750,000,000. Next in order of value were hay and forage, $2,523,000,000; cotton and cottonseed $2,355,000,000; wheat, $2,074,000,000, and oats, $855,000,000.

INTERCLASS BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Juniors Best Seniors and Sophomores the Freshies and Finally Won the Pennant from the Juniors

(Contributed by W. G.) Last Tuesday and Wednesday the annual interclass basketball tournament was held at the Brainerd high school. Besides arousing the usual enthusiasm between classes, it gave Coaches Rosell and Rock an excellent opportunity to view the prospective material for this year's quints in action.

The Juniors played the Seniors on Tuesday and after a hard fight came out on the long end of a 7-4 score. The same evening the Sophomores eliminated the Freshmen with a score of 12-6. On Wednesday the Sophomores and Juniors fought it out for the pennant, the Sophomores claiming an easy victory by a 36-6 score and thus taking the pennant from the possession of the dignified Seniors and placing it in their own section of the assembly.

The candidates for the first and second teams will turn out for practice this Thursday and will start their regular workouts for their first game, on their own floor, December 9, with Aitkin. Both coaches assure us a winning team and it is hoped that the city will give its full support.

FIERY, ITCHING SKIN
IS QUICKLY SOOTHED
WITH THIS SULPHUR

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing subdues fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist. The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

A small jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store. Adv.
